

International and local TRENDS IN ENERGY EFFICIENCY

> DATE

Monday, 7 April 2003

> TIME

1.00 pm–5.00 pm

> VENUE

Melbourne Convention Centre
Otway 2, Level 2
Corner Spencer and Flinders Streets
Melbourne

> MELWAY REFERENCE

1C H1

> TRAVEL

Spencer Street Station is a five minute walk to the venue. Spencer Street and Flinders Street tram stops are opposite and adjacent to the venue.

> RSVP

Wednesday, 2 April 2003

To confirm your attendance, please e-mail the Sustainable Energy Authority at: ibp@seav.vic.gov.au or telephone Sheri Steenhuis on 9655 3213.

Please make sure you indicate which of the two workshops you wish to attend. Afternoon tea will be provided.

This is a FREE seminar for invited guests.

> Presented by

SUSTAINABLE
ENERGY AUTHORITY
VICTORIA

International and local

TRENDS IN ENERGY EFFICIENCY

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

International and local speakers will share their expertise on energy efficiency policy and programs for industry. The seminar will cover international local and industry perspectives on energy efficiency in large industry and marketing energy efficient products and services to customers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THE SEMINAR?

Energy managers, facility managers, marketing managers, appliance retailers, energy consultants and retailers, and government representatives.

KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

TOWARDS A NATIONAL ENERGY EFFICIENCY FRAMEWORK

David Young, Chief Executive, Sustainable Energy Authority

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON ENERGY EFFICIENCY

Phil Harrington, Head of Energy Efficiency and Policy Analysis, International Energy Agency, France

Hans Nilsson, Chairman, International Energy Agency's Demand Side Management Program, Sweden

WORKSHOPS

Participants can choose to attend one of two workshops that will run concurrently.

WORKSHOP 1:

Energy efficiency and industry

EQUIPMENT MINIMUM STANDARDS AND BEST PRACTICE

Dr Tony Marker, Built Environment Manager, Sustainable Energy Group, Australian Greenhouse Office

DEMAND BIDDING INTO POWER POOLS:

SAVING MONEY AND IMPROVING BUSINESS EFFICIENCY

Seppo Karkkainen, Chief Research Engineer, Technical Research Centre, Finland

AN ENERGY USERS PERSPECTIVE

Martin Jones, Chief Executive, Plastics and Chemicals Industries Association

WORKSHOP 2:

Energy efficiency in the marketplace

TRANSFORMING THE MARKETPLACE:

SPRUIKING ENERGY EFFICIENCY TO THE MASSES

Verney Ryan, Project Manager, Building Research Establishment, UK

MARKETING ENERGY EFFICIENT APPLIANCES

IN AUSTRALIA

Mike O'Neill, Director, Oncon Pty Ltd

MINIMUM ENERGY STANDARDS

Dr Tony Marker, Built Environment Manager, Sustainable Energy Group, Australian Greenhouse Office

SUSTAINABLE
ENERGY AUTHORITY
VICTORIA

international seminar series

> JUNE 2003

Investment opportunities in renewable energy