

IEA DSM Workshop

1000 – 1015	Introduction	Anita Eide
1015 – 1030	A New Dawn for the Energy Sector Demand Side: Benefits of focusing on load shaping and load shifting activities and how the IEA DSM Programme can contribute to informing policy measure development and implementation	Hans Nilsson
1030 – 1100	Market Mechanism for White Certificates: Issues and Challenges in developing new policy measure	Antonio Capozza
1100 – 1130	Increased political focus on demand side flexibility in Norway	Tore Langset
1130 – 1230	Lunch

IEA DSM Workshop

1230 – 1300	Implementation of Demand Response Resources Programs potentials and benefits (DRR)	Ross Malme
1300 – 1315	The IEA DRR-project in Norway: Introducing Proposed Norwegian Work Plan	Ove S. Grande
1315 – 1345	Load control in the Norwegian balancing market	Inge Vognild
1345 – 1400	Coffee break
1400 – 1430	Hourly metering and remote load control: Technology and incentives for demand response in a large scale test project – Preliminary results and experiences	Ingeborg Graabak
1430 – 1500	Quality assurance and use of metered data	Klaus Livik
1500 – 1515	Closing discussion	Anita Eide