

“Global and Local Trends in Energy Efficiency – Contributing to Profits and the Economy”

Friday, 11 April 2003
Holiday Inn, 203 Victoria Street, Potts Point

PROGRAM

8.30am Registration

SESSION 1

9.00am Welcome and Introduction by Session Chair – Dr Tony Marker, Manager Built Environment, Australian Greenhouse Office (Australia)

9.05 The Role of Energy Efficiency in Job Creation – Mark Fogarty, Executive Director, SEDA (Australia)

9.25 International Collaboration and Directions for Energy Efficiency - Hans Nilsson, IEA Demand Side Management/Energy Efficiency Programme Chair (Sweden)

9.50 Transforming the Market Place: Spruiking Energy Efficiency to the Masses – Verney Ryan, Building Research Establishment (United Kingdom)

10.15 Australian Businesses Taking Action - Energy Efficiency Case Studies – Peter Haenke, Practice Area Leader, Energetics (Australia)

10.35 Session 1 Panel Discussion and questions

11.00 Morning Tea

SESSION 2

11.25 Welcome and Introduction by Session Chair – Ian Higgins, Associate Director Energy Efficiency, SEDA (Australia)

11.30 Demand Response: Infrastructure and Design Principles - Ross Malme, CEO, RETX (USA)

11.55 Energy Performance Contracting and Demand Bidding to Stimulate Energy Efficiency and Reduce Business Costs – Seppo Karkkainen, Technical Research Centre of Finland (Finland)

12.20 Australian Building Greenhouse Rating (ABGR) – World First Greenhouse Benchmark for Office Buildings – Sue Salmon, Program Manager, ABGR (Australia)

12.45 Equipment Minimum Energy Performance Standards and Best Practice – Dr Tony Marker, Manager Built Environment, Australian Greenhouse Office (Australia)

1.05 Panel Discussion and Conference Summary – Ian Higgins Associate Director Energy Efficiency, SEDA (Australia)

1.30 Lunch

2.30 Depart for Solar Sailor – walk to Circular Quay via Royal Botanic Gardens, Boy Charlton Pool, Woolloomooloo Bay and Opera House with IEA delegation

3.30 Board the solar sailor – depart from Wharf 6, Circular Quay (near Museum of Contemporary Art)